

EMELIA BLANKENSHIP

860.391.9599 • egblip@gmail.com
egblip.com

---

Objective

To further my knowledge and explore other areas of computer science and related fields in order to better develop my career goals.

Employment

---

June 2017 - August 2017    Central Connecticut State University    New Britain, CT
Teaching Assistant

Assisted Professor Chad Williams in teaching a week long summer camp for 4th to 8th graders where they built their own pi-tops and were taught the basics of python programming.

June 2017 - August 2017    Aetna    Hartford, CT
Informatics Intern

Ran reports and analyzed data using Crystal Reports and Microsoft Excel, then used this data to create dashboards and test all of the department's standard work documentation for clarity..

June 2016 - August 2016    The Hartford    Hartford, CT
Desktop Support Intern

Performed tasks in projects involving sharepoint security, wiping devices of company data, data entry, imaging new and returned machines, running data preservation, and managing IT inventory.

July 2015 - August 2015    Pathways Academy of Technology & Design    East Hartford, CT
Tech Intern

Performed data entry, cataloged school resources, took inventory of school supplies, repaired computers by replacing faulty hardware components, and reimaged student computers

Relevant Coursework

---

Web design - Introductory HTML and web page production.

AP Computer Science - Using Java to understand the fundamentals of computer science.

Business Applications - Training in Microsoft Office's Word, Excel, and Powerpoint.

Networking - Gaining a basic understanding of networks and network devices.

Mobile Application Design - Exposure and training in MIT App Inventor.

AP Biology - Introduced to foundational concepts of biology.

AP Literature and Composition - Learning to analyze and breakdown texts into their core meanings.

Education

---

Pathways Academy of Technology & Design    East Hartford, CT
September 2014 – Present

Goodwin College    East Hartford, CT
August 2016 - April 2017

University of Hartford    Hartford, CT
August 2017 - Present

Volunteer Activities

---

Disabled American Veterans    Middletown, CT
* Assists frequently with fundraisers and special events