

EMELIA BLANKENSHIP

egblip@gmail.com

---

Objective

To obtain a challenging internship opportunity that utilizes my strength and interest in technology, and helps me identify possible career paths.

---

Summary of qualifications

- Freshman Class Treasurer and Sophomore Class President
- 2015 Academic Award Recipient
- High Honor roll student - 4.092 GPA
- Member of the National Honor Society

---

Employment

June 2016 - August 2016	The Hartford	Hartford, CT
Tech Support Intern
Performed tasks in projects involving sharepoint security, wiping devices of company data, data entry, imaging new and returned machines, running data preservation, and managing IT inventory.
July 2015 - August 2015	Pathways Academy of Technology & Design	East Hartford, CT
Tech Intern
Performed data entry, cataloged school resources, took inventory of school supplies, repaired computers by replacing faulty hardware components, reimaged student computers

---

Relevant Coursework

Web design - Introductory HTML and web page production.

Programming - Understanding entry-level programming using Python.

Business Applications - Training in Microsoft Office's Word, Excel, and Powerpoint.

Networking - Gaining a basic understanding of networks and network devices.

Mobile Application Design - Exposure and training in MIT App Inventor.

Digital Game Design - Acquiring principles of game design and exposure to GameMaker Studio

AP Biology - Introduced to foundational concepts of biology.

AP Calculus - Understanding fundamentals of calculus.

---

Education

Pathways Academy of Technology & Design	East Hartford, CT
September 2014 – Present
* Junior
Goodwin College	East Hartford, CT
August 2016 - Present
* Early College English Composition

---

Volunteer Activities

Disabled American Veterans	Middletown, CT
* Assists frequently with fundraisers and special events	